

TABLE CC

designed by Studio Rex Kralj

The centrepiece of the home

The cross connection makes an appearance again, this time in the shape of a dining table. Based on the unique design of the 1954 Stool CC, the Table CC is characterised by its clean lines and minimalistic appearance. Often considered the centrepiece of the home, this table will not only make a statement in the space, but will be the place for eating and socialising for years to come.
